FRIENDSHIP GAMES BETWEEN SCHOOLS

STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY FOR COMPETITION IN LIFE

Pacific Union Education Code #A11-128

Competition is a common experience in life and is present in play, work, education, economic systems and the political arena. It exists between individuals, groups and nations. There is even competition for the souls of humankind. When competition is present in appropriate settings, teachers can guide students toward the values of staying focused on a goal, perseverance, handling victory and defeat graciously and emphasizing teamwork over individual accomplishments. If competition is friendly and organized so that every student has the opportunity at some time to win, then motivation, achievement, and interpersonal relations may be enhanced.

Competition that is allowed in the wrong setting or that is not properly managed can have negative effects. Only a few students will be able to experience success, and the tendency to make safe rather than growth choices will be increased. Students may think of academics or athletics as a means to an end (being better than others) and may become more interested in their relative position in a class or on a team than in the performance of the team or group. In poorly managed competition, it is likely that hostility between members of the group will often develop into outward aggression.

It is, therefore, essential that in all curricular and co-curricular endeavors, actions and attitudes should be guided by higher principles. School personnel should make every effort to develop a Christ-centered, cooperative environment in which teachers and students together identify group goals, plan activities, develop communication skills, apportion responsibilities, participate in spiritual growth endeavors, and learn strategies for helping one another.

In response to appropriately employed competitive activities, students, guided by their teachers, should seek to:

- Develop their physical, mental and spiritual gifts to the fullest extent.
- Cultivate such Christian virtues as commitment, courtesy, fair play, honesty, loyalty, obedience, respect, self-confidence and self-control.
- Manage successes and contend with failures.
- Function effectively as team members.
- Strive for excellence.

GOALS AND ESSENTIAL CORE ELEMENTS FOR CURRICULUM IN SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST SCHOOLS – JOURNEY TO EXCELLENCE

Healthy Balanced Living – Accept personal responsibility for achieving and maintaining optimum physical, mental, and spiritual health.

- Recognize that God's ideal for quality living includes a healthy lifestyle.
- ♦ Incorporate into one's lifestyle the principles that promote health: nutrition, exercise, water, sunlight, temperance, air, rest, and trust in God.
- Avoid at-risk behaviors.
- Apply Christian principles in recreation and sports.
- Achieve a balance in work and leisure, balancing physical, mental, social, and spiritual activities.
- Recognize the interaction of physical, mental, and spiritual health with emotional and social well-being.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

A COACH'S CODE OF CONDUCT

- Provide a Christian-centered cooperative environment
- ❖ Take responsibility for athletes' well-being and development.
- Accept the reality that they serve as role models, as such, their actions must live up to their words.
- Provide a physically and emotionally safe environment for athletes during practice, as well as competition.
- Exemplify ethical behaviors, including honesty, integrity, fair play and sportsmanship. These are life-long lessons that take precedence over any emphasis on winning.
- Maintain a professional demeanor in their relationships with athletes, officials, colleagues, administrators and the community.

- Coaches recognize the power and influence of their position with respect to athletes. Therefore, coaches are careful to avoid and refrain from exhibiting behaviors that could develop into interpersonal relationships, or even create the perception of intimacy—or the desire for intimacy—with athletes.
- Coaches refrain from direct physical contact with players (i.e., pats on the buttocks) that could be construed as sexual in nature. Work toward the best interests of their athletes by understanding issues of confidentiality and avoiding situations that could create conflicts of interest or could exploit any athlete.
- Commit themselves to their athletes' academic achievement.
- Discourage the use of performance-enhancing substances and dietary supplements. Coaches also should encourage athletes, in conjunction with their families, to seek the advice of qualified medical professionals regarding performance-enhancing substances.
- ❖ Be knowledgeable about nutrition, hydration, safe and healthy weight loss or gain, and healthy eating behaviors. When a situation exceeds a coach's scope of knowledge, he or she should refer the athlete to an appropriate medical professional for the most current and accurate information.
- Practice safe training and conditioning techniques that are current.
- Exhibit sound injury and risk-management practices.
- Demonstrate an understanding of their athletes' growth and developmental stages.
- Encourage athletes to adopt a physically active lifestyle.
- Place athletes' needs and interests before their own.
- Remember that competition should be healthy and enjoyable.

- Be your child's best fan; support him or her unconditionally.
- ♦ Acknowledge your child's effort, as well as his or her support of team members, adherence to player responsibilities, etc.

- Model good sportsmanship at all times during practices and competition.
- ♦ Don't bribe your child or offer incentives for good performance. Instead, orient him or her to the enjoyment of participating and his or her responsibility to the team.
- ♦ Encourage direct communication. If your child is having difficulties in practice or games or can't make a practice, encourage him or her to speak directly to the coaches.
- Understand and display appropriate game behaviors (e.g., watch; make positive remarks; don't berate players, officials or coaches). Remember, your child's self-esteem and game performance are at stake. Be supportive.
- Monitor your child's stress level at home. Ask questions to ascertain whether your child is having trouble balancing various activities in his or her life. Ask whether she or he is enjoying the sport experience. Help your child handle any stress effectively.
- Monitor eating and sleeping habits. Ensure that your child is eating the proper foods and getting adequate rest.
- Help your child keep his or her priorities straight, maintaining a balance among schoolwork, family responsibilities, chores, free time and organized sport participation.

- If your child's performance produces strong emotions in you, maintain a calm demeanor. Your relationship with your child remains long after competitive sport days are over. Keep your goals and needs separate from your child's experience.
- Reality test: If your child's team loses but has played its best, help your child see that as a "win." Remind him or her to focus on "process" and not only "results" Children should derive fun and satisfaction from "striving to win." and playing well and hard.

- Verbal warning
- Removal from a competition site by administration or law enforcement
- Warning letter
- Suspension from attending future contests
- Charges filed with law enforcement
- Exclusion from all extra-curricular events.

The level of intervention is dependent upon the severity of the unsportsmanlike behavior exhibited

ELIGIBILITY FOR STUDENT PARTICIPATION

The Central California Conference Board of Education strongly recommends that Friendship Games Schools establish standards in the following areas for students to be permitted to participate in friendship games:

- Academics
- Attendance
- Citizenship
- Physical Fitness

A student must be enrolled as a part-time or full-time student in a Central California Conference of Seventh-day Adventist accredited school in order to be eligible to participate in the Friendship Games program. The Friendship Games program is open to students in grades five to twelve.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION FOR STUDENT ATHLETE

An annual physical/medical examination, or a statement by a professional medical practitioner, certifying that the student is physically fit to participate in athletics, is required before a student may try out, practice, or participate in the Friendship Games program.

A student shall be in compliance with medical examinations and immunizations as outlined in the Pacific Union Conference Education Code #A23-116 and #A23-120.

PLAYER ELIGIBILITY CLARIFICATION STATEMENT

Students must be enrolled in a Central California Conference accredited school in order to be eligible to participate in the Friendship Games program. Students in grades eleven and twelve may participate on a senior varsity team only. Ninth and tenth grade students may participate concurrently on a junior varsity and a senior varsity team during the same sports season. Students in grades seven and eight may participate concurrently on a junior high and high school team, but at the discretion of the athletic director and principal. It is important for the athletic director and coach to match all athletes according to their physical and skill levels. Students in grades five through eight may participate on an elementary team.

Participation Designation

Elementary: Grades 5-8 Junior Varsity: Grades 7-10

Varsity: Grades 8-12

PROCEDURE FOR SCHEDULING FRIENDSHIP GAMES

- Arrangements for scheduling friendship games are to be officially made by the school principal and/or athletic director.
- The local school board shall approve all off-campus games with other schools.
- The Conference Office of Education is to receive, at the end of each quarter, a list of friendship games participated in by each of the schools. This must be submitted one week after the close of the quarter.
- If any friendship games involve an overnight trip, then the regular conference field trip policies shall apply.
- If a school wishes to participate in an occasional friendship game with a non-Adventist school, or an Adventist school outside of the Central California Conference, permission for such activity is to be obtained from the local school board.

ATHLETIC SUPERVISION CHECKLIST

By reducing liability and unnecessary exposure to our students and spectators we create a safer place for our student-athletes and families to participate. It takes effort by everyone involved, from the principal to the coach. Listed below is a checklist of supervision and legal issues that schools could use to begin a self-audit of their athletic supervision. This list is NOT all encompassing, as each individual school has its own unique set of circumstances, procedures and responsibilities, but it should be viewed as a good beginning.

SCHOOL

- All participants have on file a current physical examination form that approves the athlete to participate.
- All participants have on file a current "informed consent" form signed by BOTH the parent/guardian and the student that gives the student permission to participate.
- All coaches have valid CPR/First Aid cards on file.

- Ensure that all coaches meet the Central California Conference Friendship Games Commission for "who can coach" and Education Policies.
- Ensure all volunteer coaches have completed the "VERIFIED VOLUNTEER" background clearance before any contact with students takes place.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATOR

- Ensure that all coaches meet the Central California Conference Friendship Games Commission for "who can coach."
- Coaches need to have "emergency" information on all participants with them at all practices/contests.
- Check the facility regularly to maintain a safe and proper playing environment.
- Emergency phone numbers and emergency care guidelines are posted near an easily accessible telephone.
- Provide coaches with an emergency action plan (what to do in case of ...)
- Ensure the school is providing proper, safe and effective equipment.
- Create policies and procedures for the athletic department (Coaches' Handbook).
- Follow up and enforce such policies and procedures.
- Inform all participants of the risk of participation and inherent dangers (Informed Consent).
- Ensure that coaches have been instructed on proper actions and behavior.
- Keep written inventory of when equipment was purchased, repaired, or reconditioned.
- Ensure that proper skills are taught.
- Contact the Central California Conference Office of Education to ensure all volunteer coaches have completed the "Verified Volunteer" background clearance.

COACHES

- Coaches have "emergency" information on all participants with them at all practices and/or contests.
- Properly plan the activity.
- Provide adequate and proper equipment.
- Match your athletes by maturity, skill and experience.
- Evaluate and treat the injured athlete.
- Supervise your activity, both specific and general supervision.
- Check the facility daily to maintain a safe and proper playing environment.
- Ensure emergency phone numbers and emergency care guidelines are posted near an easily accessible telephone.
- Coaches ensure that proper skills are being taught by documenting and keeping all practice plans and instructions.
- Inform all participants of the risk of participation, both in writing and verbally. Along with teaching the proper techniques, remind students daily of the risks of injury when they fail to follow proper technique.

-Adapted from the Coalition of Americans to Protect Sports

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT CHECKLIST

Each school shall adopt a policy concerning an Emergency Management Policy. This needs to be done prior to the new school year and ratified by the local school board.

-Adapted from the Coalition of Americans to Protect Sports

It is very important that you clearly understand how to deal with emergencies at your school and indeed, wherever you and your students are involved in a school activity.

We need to do all we can to protect the active youth from serious injury while participating in sports. BE PREPARED. The time to think about emergency care is long before the emergency happens.

You should always be in direct contact with your athletic director on all emergency matters. Additionally, remember that you are expected to fill out an Accident Report form after an emergency occurs and submit it to the athletic director or school administrator.

The following Emergency Management Checklist lists the consideration coaches need to be aware of for both practice and games.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT CHECKLIST

Is there a licensed physician or licensed medical personnel on site?

Are all personnel currently certified in CPR and First Aid?

Do you know how to contact paramedics, ambulance, fire department, etc.? (Dial 911)

Is there a working phone on-site with access to outside lines? If not, where is the nearest phone? Make sure it works.

Is there unobstructed emergency vehicle access to your location? Are all gates unlocked?

Do you have accurate insurance information and emergency release forms for each student?

Do you have the necessary First Aid supplies?

Is there fresh water available?

Do you know the address and nearest crossroad to your practice or game site?

Who will travel with the injured student to the hospital? (Parent, assistant coach, school administrator?)

Has responsibility been assigned as to who will notify the parent or guardian?

STUDENT EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

The following procedures are presented for all school personnel as guidelines for preparing for and handling student emergencies. It is recognized that good judgment is the key factor in any crisis. When in doubt, all efforts should be extended to protect the health and welfare of the student.

EXTREME EMERGENCY

- ✓ Activate Emergency Management Procedures Call 911. Each administrator shall appoint one person responsible to authorize these calls in his/her absence.
- ✓ Call parent; advise him/her of the accident and of all measures that have been taken.
- ✓ If parent/guardian cannot be located, contact local law enforcement.
- ✓ Be sure to submit a Central California Conference Student Accident Report Form to the appropriate administrator or athletic director within 24 hours.

♦ ILLNESS OR INJURY

- ✓ Notify parents; advise them of the injury or illness.
- ✓ If parents cannot be reached, contact another responsible adult who is listed on the emergency card (18 years of age or older).
- ✓ Submit Student Accident Report Form to the appropriate administrator or athletic director.
- ✓ Do not allow the injured athlete to practice/participate until a medical clearance letter is received by the athletic director.

SENDING A STUDENT HOME

- ✓ A student is to be released only to a responsible adult who is listed on the emergency card and is eighteen years of age or older.
- ✓ It is the responsibility of the parent or other authorized adult to provide transportation.

THE CHRISTIAN ATHLETE'S CREED

I am a Christian first and last.
I am created in the likeness of God Almighty to bring Him glory.
I am a member of Team Jesus Christ.
I wear the colors of the cross.

I am a team player now and forever.
I am made to strive, to strain,
to stretch and to succeed in athletics.
I am a Christian athlete and as such, I face my opponent with the face of Christ.

I do not trust in myself.
I do not boast in my abilities or believe in my own strength.
I rely solely on the power of God.
I play for the pleasure of my Heavenly Father, the honor of Christ and the reputation of the Holy Spirit.

My attitude on and off the field is above reproach—my conduct beyond criticism. Whether I am preparing, practicing or playing; I submit to God's authority and those He has put over me. I respect my coaches, officials, teammates and opponents out of respect for the Lord.

My body is the temple of Jesus Christ.
I protect it from within and without.
Nothing enters my body that does not honor the Living God.
My sweat is an offering to my Master.
My soreness is a sacrifice to my Savior.

I give my all—all of the time.
I do not give up. I do not give in.
I do not give out. I am the Lord's warrior—a team player by conviction and a disciple of determination.
I am confident beyond reason because my confidence lies in Christ.
The result of my efforts must result in His glory.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN. LET THE GLORY BE GOD'S.
